ADULT FICTION

Love Marriage
Monica Ali
VIRAGO
TPB $32.99

Yasmin Ghorami is getting married, not in an arranged union, but a love marriage. Her parents are Bengali and fiancé Joe’s family are English, presenting a culture clash that exposes crises on both sides of the aisle. Issues of class, race and religion intertwine with the personal struggles of Yasmin and Joe, who must navigate a seemingly endless stream of internecine challenges. A wonderful read from the author of Brick Lane.

The Islands
Emily Brugman
ALLEN & UNWIN
TPB $29.99

On an archipelago off the coast of Western Australia, a group of Finnish migrants settle into a new life on Little Rat Island. Crayfishing is in its infancy, but it promises the chance of a future for Onni Saari, his stoic wife Alva, and daughter Hilda, who dreams of capturing her own boat. The story of the Saari family unfolds as the Little Rat settlement evolves into a place they can call home.

Cold Enough for Snow
Jessica Au
GIRAMONDO
PB $24.95

This beautiful novel is a complex and dense story of family, art, memory and place. As a daughter travels through Japan with her mother, a series of memories and musings illuminate their relationship, revealing the complexities of their Chinese-Australian heritage and the gulf between their life experiences. A profound and intricate work by one of Australia’s finest young novelists.

The Cane
Maryrose Cuskelly
ALLEN & UNWIN
TPB $32.99

Sixteen-year-old Janet McClymont disappears, last seen walking into the cane fields in the North Queensland town of Quala. The police are clueless, the town is scared, and the cane needs to be burned for harvesting. Janet’s mother tries desperately to stop the burning until the girl is found. The region’s distrust and prejudices hamper the search for truth in this taut, atmospheric thriller.

The Furies
Mandy Beaumont
HACHETTE AUSTRALIA
TPB $32.99

At sixteen Cynthia has a resume of trauma, with her sister’s disappearance, her mother’s incarceration, and her father absconding. She is at the centre of repeating violence against women, against the land and against animals. Set against the backdrop of a barren landscape, The Furies is a raw, unflinching and utterly authentic debut novel from Mandy Beaumont.

The Maid
Nita Prose
HARPERCOLLINS
TPB $29.99

Molly is a maid at the Regency Grand Hotel. She struggles with the nuances of social cues, often misreading the intentions of others. Since her Gran died, Molly has been alone, taking pleasure in transforming messy rooms into perfection. This routine is shattered when she finds the wealthy Charles Black dead in his bed. Caught in a web of deception, Molly must find the killer with the help of friends she never realised she had.

Making Australian History
Anna Clark
VINTAGE AUSTRALIA
TPB $34.99

Australian history has been revised and reinterpreted by successive generations of historians, writers, governments and public commentators, yet there has been no account of the ways it has changed and how. Making Australian History responds to this critical gap. It catalogues and contextualises changing readings of the past and examines the problematic role of historians as national storytellers.

For the Good of the World
A. C. Grayling
ONEWORLD
HB $34.99

The three biggest challenges facing the world today, in A. C. Grayling’s view, are climate change, technology and justice. In his timely new book, he asks: can human beings agree on a set of values that will allow us to confront the numerous threats facing the planet, or will we simply continue with our disagreements and antipathies as we collectively approach our possible extinction? The solution he proposes is both pragmatic and inspiring.
