

Fat Cat

By Edith (Eadee) Butcher

6 years old

Lower Primary: Prep to Year 2

Fat Cat, fat Cat is on the mat

He saw lots of bats. He does not like bats – they're too sneaky.

Oh no, what happened Cat?

Is the hat thin? No! It's TOO fat.

The Cat can not see in the fat hat.

What are you doing bats? Are you teasing Cat? Oh cheeky bats!

Cat had a chat to the bats

And asked them to lift off his fat hat.

And because he liked fashion, they noticed his plait!

And his owner Fiona saw a rat.

So she sat on a chair with her legs up.

But just when the rat was about to crawl up the chair...the bat swooped in and ate that rat!

A bat had a chat to the Fat Cat.

"Look over there", said the bat. "There's a button..."

Should I...? Cat thought to himself and then he said it out loud;

"Hey Bat, should I just go ahead and press that button?"

Bat's eyes went big and he said, "YES!"

So Cat pressed the button and you'll never guess what happened next...

A special dinner arrived!

"Well done, Cat" said Bat.

"Well, come and join me", replied Cat.

