

3 month BOOK SUBSCRIPTION TERMS & CONDITIONS

- This book subscription entitles the recipient to three new release titles to be collected by the recipient in store.
- The three titles will be selected by Farrells bookshop staff in consultation with the responses to the Reading Preferences Questionnaire completed by the recipient.
- The subscription will commence once the recipient has submitted their Questionnaire responses.
- The first title will be selected and the recipient advised it is available for collection within 7 days of their Questionnaire completion. The second and third titles will be similarly selected one month apart in the following two months, equating to one title per month for three consecutive months.
- The recipient will collect all books from Farrells Bookshop at 143 Main Street Mornington during regular business hours.
- The recipient must collect their book subscription selections within a reasonable time frame. Books that are uncollected 3 months after the recipient has been advised of their availability will be returned to stock.
- If the recipient does not feel the book selected is the right fit for them, they may exchange the book for an alternative new release fiction title. The following exchange conditions are non-negotiable:
 - The book for exchange must be in as-new condition;
 - The book must be exchanged within 28 days of collection.
- We welcome recipient feedback on the book selections each month to allow further tailoring to the recipient's reading tastes and inform future book subscription selections.
- The value of this book subscription is not redeemable for cash and may not be exchanged or refunded.
- This book subscription will expire 3 years from date of purchase if not taken up by the recipient.
